Fruit Ridge Notes - "Growing Smarter" - Monday - November 6 - 2017

Greetings Everyone ....

**** It's my Beautiful Bride of 48 Years Birthday Today ....
Happy Birthday Honey!!!

**** Growing Smarter .... Last Week...Deanna and I attended the Redox University Event in Burley Idaho.... Lots of Great Information.... The Science is so intricately-in-depth.... And yet still makes perfect sense.... All Research-Based. It is indeed the "Rest-of-the-Story" ...the Story that the original Scientists painstakingly explained to us in writing 80+Years ago... But it seems we all stopped reading the Book half way thru.

Currently...Our Associates in Washington and Oregon and California are doing the same outrageous things out there on 50 different crops as we are doing here in the Great Lakes on All the Tree Fruits and Small Fruits and Vegetables....and also here now in Row-Crops. Some of my Pals just can't get their head around how this stuff can do what it does... but .... It just does.

If you haven't had time yet, please read that Potassium Paradox Paper I sent you.... or maybe Re-Read-It...?? ...and Please make a Note on Your Calendar for visiting with us about Redox at the G.Lakes Expo in early December...at our RGSs Super-Booth....

And also .... A hugely great opportunity to learn a whole bunch about Redox...at the North-West Michigan Orchard and Vineyard Conference...Thursday--January 18th - 2018 -- at Acme MI...the Grand Traverse Resort Hotel--Convention Center. There we do a 5 Hour-Seminar about how Redox does what it does. I very strongly recommend that all Ya's sign up asap for that "Redox-University-Event" Please sign up fast...because of very Limited Seating at that one.

This coming Jan.18 will be Our 3rd???...or maybe our 4th...??....year of doing this Redox Seminar up there at the NWMO&V Conference.... the Jan.18-Thursday Redox University Event follows the Tues-Wednes-2-Day-NWMO&V Conference....

And....I think Redox-Reisters will again be helping you with the Cost of Your Room if you're from Down-State and will be spending the night there at the Hotel....??? Please check with Deanna and/or Nancy and/or Alicia here....which you can do by simply "Reply-All" on this Email....
