Fruit Ridge Notes - Tuesday - January 9th – 2018

Hello Again With Meetings and Drs.Appointments Next Week.... It appears I will not be doing any FRNotes...SoI'm gonna be sending Ya'll some notes this week as often as I think of anything Note-Worthy.....

The Itinerary for the Redox University [R.U.] Thurs-Jan.18th...at the Grand Traverse Resort & Spa Conference Center..... is....

7a-8am -- Registration & Breakfast

8a-Noon-- Great Information ...We'll have some Breaks

Noon-1pm-- Lunch

1p-4.30p -- Awesome Information ...We'll have some Breaks

5.30p -- Dinner

The Breakfast ++ Lunch ++ Dinner... is all covered by Redox...as well as your Wedn.PM. Hotel Room.....

....and they usually have some pretty Cool Gifts for our Attendees.... Unless maybe you didn't Register-Call-In early enuf...??

No Entry Fee for R.U.

That $35 mentioned in earlier FRNotes was about the NWMO&V Show.... That Show gets over-done Wedn-Afternoon ...

Recently Talkin with a Redox-User-Associate..... This Guy works with several Asparagus Growers... Some that are doing Redox....Some are not. One RedoxUserGrower has not done any Regular-Granular-Ground-Applied-Muriate-"K"Potash in 4 Years.... Using only Redox....His production is all 'Primo' Quality with 8,500 Lbs.-Per-Acre-Total-Season....InSpite of the Freezeswhile "County-Wide-Avg" there by him is like 3800 Lbs.-Acre...???

Hmmm....Doing the Math on a $60 Market...?? I think he is coming out approx $9000-per-acre ahead of the Non-Redox-User-Neighbors....???

Hmmm.... Just clickn it out in my head....That's approx $1.6Million on a 180-Ac-Gras-Guy....

And....

One Redox Guy's Ferns 4 months back were averaging 11 ft. 6 in...while at the neighbors across the street?? 5 ft.Ferns....

..... I am just Sooo Extreme-Happy for these Guys when their Profitability Doubles and Triples !!!!!
