Fruit Ridge Notes - Wednesday - February 28- 2018

Greetings Friends

Yup----Last Day of Feb..... Today is kinda too warm again ...But Tomorrow-onward is supposed to be a bit cooler... ????. ...like Low 40's.....???? ...for a few days at least.
Really nice Funeral this morning for RuthAnn Kober...Wayne Kobers Bride of 56+ Years.... Well attended.... a wonderful Tribute.

Shrimp Brains Just had a nice visit about the 'Agrinos' Products.... Products derived from Shrimp-Food-Processing-Bi-Products.... But this stuff does not smell bad...Not at all....Quite unlike my expectations And it's very impressive on the performance side. I have the Protocol--Recommendations for Tarts--Sweets--Blues--DirectSeededOnion--Tubers--Hops--More....

...Here.... Is for Use On Producing-Apple-Blocks....
To provide Sustained-Biological-Availability of Ammonical"N" and other key Nutrients, and improve Calcium availability and mobility, and improve Photosynthesis and Metabolic Functions during any stress...and Improve Chelation-Overall-Nutrient Uptake, while providing a Low-Dose-Organic "N"

The Protocol for Use is...

1 Qt. Foliar "B-Sure" @ Pink [$11]

1 Lb. Soil-Applied Agrinos"5-0-0" [$10] and ...

1 Qt. Soil-Applied "Invigorate" 30 - 45 Days Post-Bloom[$12]

1 Qt. Foliar "B-Sure" August 1st [$11]

As many of Ya's recall from the Meetings...This stuff really gets the Soil-Microbial-Activity really revved.... I seriously really like this stuff.... and one key-factor in my 'like' is the Cost-Effective-Aspect. This Agrinos stuff has many-times-more-Living-Microbes than some of the competitive-products, while some of those other products cost 5-6-7-8 times more-per-acre than Agrinos.

And....If you are stopping or cutting way back on the expensive ol'traditional-NPK-Dry-Blended-Bulk-Spreader-Type Fertilizers, then you are also "stopping-the-bleeding" of Killing-Your-Microbials.... Its a Win-Win. And a huge Savings.....

A whole Bunch of You Guys my age know doggone-well why/how some "competitive-products" can cost so much more, and really do so much less than some others....???

Kinda like This When a Lean-Mean-Efficient Manufacturer like Agrinos gets really really rollin and makin very serious money, a huge WorldWideConglom Type Company comes along and offers to buy them out for like ...say $850Million ...so they sell out and live happily ever after. But then...the W.W.Conglom looks at the "Market" ...and 'What the Traffic-Will-Bear'and then realizes that RGSs and Agrinos were leaving a bunch of $$$ on the table.... Then...???. ...the Price goes way up.....way way up. That crap happens almost every day.
