Fruit Ridge Notes - Monday - October 15 - 2018

Hello Friends Greetings from Cold & Damp Fruit Ridge Ave.....

We are so happy for so many of you that are really closing in on the Harvest..... Its been kinda ugly.

Lots of Product goin out-the-door for the "'Post-Harvest-Foliar-Applns'" In our Program you'll find the Best-Quality-Performance-Products for the least Per-Acre-Cost.

Only 1 Month til "'Opening Day'"

Q & A 2,4-D in Orchards Yup. Doing the entire Floor makes good sense to me. I know there are varying opinions about having a bunch of Dandelions in the Orchards during Bloom....??? But I just like them all gone.

Tank-Mixes - Herbicides Our Guys haven't mentioned any issues/problems in a very long time. And when we are doing a "'Post-Harvest-Weed-Spray'" we are always tempted to dump some old 'not-great-quality' stuff into the Tank just to get it off the shelf. It can make for some pretty Out-Landish Tank-Mixes. But the 'common-denominator' with our Guys is that most of them have their Indicate 5 in that Tank before anything else. I really think that's how our Guys get away with dumping in the 'Kitchen-Sink' as they do.

The Indy [Indicate5] is a Water Conditioner, a Sequestering Agent, a pH Reducer, and a Middle-Weight-Spreader-Sticker.

The word 'indicate' is for how Indy can tell you what the pH of your Tank-Mix-Water is just by observing the color of it.

One of our Faves already asked about any "Year-End-Deals"...???

Oh Yeah ... I'm sure there will be some "Deals"... There's always some Inventory that can just as well be gone.... or at least 'Owned-By' someone else.

Last year we had quite a bit of Product that some of you Guys 'Bought & Paid For' at Year-End, and then we kept it here for you til Spring. I'm sure there will be plenty of that again this Fall-December.

I'm thinkn this year it will be due to Tax-Advisors advice and not so much because of huge Profitability-Over-Loaded-Check-Books...??? ... Altho a bunch of Guys had a bunch of very U$ ExtraFancy Honey$. That$ always$ a bunch of Fun !!
