Greetings

If You have checked out the "Reisters.Net" WebSite today, You have seen some Photos of our SuperBooth at the Expo. We have 4 Booths 2 x 22 Booths right directly across the Isle from 2 more Booths. With all of the Manufacturer Reps that want to hang with us [instead of having their own Booth] we really need the SuperBooth. And....Its right in the middle of the big Exhibitors Hall Room. We are feeling Blessed to have had this Booth-Arrangement for several Years now.

Ya'll remember the old "Club 37" from way back ...??? Up there north of Baldwin & Wolf Lake...??? Years ago when Kenny Conran owned it Remember his Garlic Toast and Liver Pate' ?? Sweet Fancy Moses.... I could make a entire Meal out of that stuff.

AnywayPlease say a Prayer for Kenny ...He's in the Hospital right now... not doing well.... The Med-Experts are still tryin to figure out what the heck is wrong. I quite sure he's about 84 YrsOld.

Kenny is a Good Ol Boy Neighbor Pal that has spent the last few Years just helping People out whenever he can however he can.

May our Awesome All-Powerful Triune God please bring Kenny back to good Health & Wellness ...In the Saving Name of Jesus....Amen

On the Brighter-Side..... It surely appears we will have Lorsban4E/Chlorpyrifos4E for 2019 ???!!!!!! Lookn at the new MSU-E-154 ...all the Verbiage I can see..... and asking a cupla Pals that have the Inside-Trak on some of these kind of Details All sounds like we are Good-to-Go. Praising our very Cool God right now. This ol stinky crap is such an important butt-kickn-Tool for us at such a LowCost-per-Acre..... I love this stuff. And our Omniscient God knows that this ol O.P. isnt hurting anything except the Targets we're aiming at... 😊😊😊

Hey Deanna says get your BumbleBees ordered ASAP.....

Wow.....Talked to a Bunch of Folks at Expo that are hugely impressed with the BumbleBees.... Some Blues Boys had a nice Crop on the Bumble-Farm On the regular honey-bee farm not so much. A Huge ROI difference. Huge.

Warmest Regardsr
